Small Group Discussion Questions

“Reaching Across the Racial Divide Towards Reconciliation”

Presented by: Bishop Herman Yoos w/ Rev. Leroy Cannon

1. Share an experience when like Bishop Yoos, your eyes were opened, and your heart was moved towards racial justice and reconciliation? Were there any different actions you took because of this experience?
2. Have you seen a movie like Selma or read a book that highlighted the need for bridging the racial divide in our country?
3. What did you hear God saying to you through this talk?
4. What might God be calling you to do in the future? For instance,
5. Do you have a relationship with someone who might co-host a movie discussion meal event in the future?
If not, who is someone of a different race you could have lunch with and explore this possibility?

Resources mentioned during the presentation for a program initiated in Columbia SC are located on the SC Synod Race and Reconciliation Web Page. <https://scsynod.com/inclusiveness-network/#racism>
The materials for the Selma event is in the “From Charleston to Selma” download.
